Dear Mr. Scott:

I am writing in response to your request for certification, pursuant to Ark. Code Ann. § 7-9-107 (Supp. 2013), of the popular name and ballot title for a proposed constitutional amendment.

At the outset, I wish to make clear to you that the decision to certify or reject a popular name and ballot title is in no way a reflection of my view of the merits of a particular proposal. I am not authorized to, and do not, consider the merits of the measure when making my determination to certify or reject a popular name and ballot title.

The Attorney General is required, pursuant to Ark. Code Ann. § 7-9-107, to certify the popular name and ballot title of all proposed initiative and referendum acts or amendments before the petitions are circulated for signature. The law provides that the Attorney General may, if practicable, substitute and certify a more suitable and correct popular name and ballot title. Or, if the proposed popular name and ballot title are sufficiently misleading, the Attorney General may reject the entire petition.

Ark. Code Ann. § 7-9-107 neither requires nor authorizes this office to make legal determinations concerning the merits of the act or amendment, or concerning the likelihood that it will accomplish its stated objective. In addition, consistent with Arkansas Supreme Court precedent, unless the measure is “clearly contrary to law,”¹ this office will not require that a measure’s proponents acknowledge in the ballot title any possible constitutional infirmities.² Consequently, this review has been limited primarily to a determination, pursuant to the guidelines that have been set forth by the Arkansas Supreme Court, discussed below, of whether the popular name and ballot title you have submitted accurately and impartially summarize the provisions of your proposed amendment.

The purpose of my review and certification is to ensure that the popular name and ballot title honestly, intelligibly, and fairly set forth the purpose of the proposed amendment or act.³

REQUEST

You have requested certification, pursuant to Ark. Code Ann. § 7-9-107 (Supp. 2013), of the following popular name and ballot title for a proposed constitutional amendment:

Popular Name

CURTAIL LEGISLATIVE AMENDMENTS

Ballot Title

To reduce the number of constitutional amendments permitted the legislature from three to one by modifying Article 19, Section 22.

² As part of my review, however, I may address constitutional concerns for consideration by the measure’s proponents.

RESPONSE

The popular name is primarily a useful legislative device.⁴ It need not contain detailed information or include exceptions that might be required of a ballot title, but it must not be misleading or give partisan coloring to the merit of the proposal.⁵ The popular name is to be considered together with the ballot title in determining the ballot title's sufficiency.⁶

The ballot title must include an impartial summary of the proposed amendment or act that will give the voter a fair understanding of the issues presented.⁷ According to the Court, if information omitted from the ballot title is an "essential fact which would give the voter serious ground for reflection, it must be disclosed."⁸ At the same time, however, a ballot title must be brief and concise;⁹ otherwise voters could run afoul of Ark. Code Ann. § 7-5-309's five-minute limit in voting booths when other voters are waiting in line.¹⁰ The ballot title is not required to be perfect, nor is it reasonable to expect the title to cover or anticipate every possible legal argument the proposed measure might evoke.¹¹ The title, however, must be "free of any misleading tendency whether by amplification, omission, or fallacy, and it must not be tinged with partisan coloring."¹² The ballot title must be honest and

Priest*, 326 Ark. 338, 347, 931 S.W.2d 128, 133 (1996)) or that "gives the voter only the impression that the proponents of the proposed amendment wish to convey of the activity

impartial,¹³ and it must convey an intelligible idea of the scope and significance of a proposed change in the law.¹⁴

Applying these precepts, it is my conclusion that I should substitute and certify a more suitable, complete, and correct popular name and ballot title for those proposed. The following is hereby certified in order to ensure that, when construed together, the popular name and ballot title accurately set forth the purpose of the proposed amendment:

REDUCING CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS PROPOSED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY UNDER ARTICLE 19, SECTION 22 OF THE ARKANSAS CONSTITUTION

Ballot Title

Article 19, Section 22 of the Arkansas Constitution currently authorizes the Arkansas General Assembly at a regular legislative session to propose up to three (3) constitutional amendments to be submitted to the people for approval or rejection at the next general election. This amendment would change this number from three (3) to one (1), so that the General Assembly would be authorized at a regular session to propose no more than one (1) constitutional amendment pursuant to Article 19, Section 22, for submission to the people at the next general election.

Pursuant to Ark. Code Ann. § 7-9-108, instructions to canvassers and signers must precede every petition, informing them of the privileges granted by the Arkansas represented by the words.” (Christian Civic Action Committee v. McCuen, 318 Ark. 241, 249, 884 S.W.2d 605, 610 (1994)).

 - (F) Knowingly misrepresents the purpose and effect of the petition or the measure affected for the purpose of causing a person to sign a petition;
- (3) If the person acting as a canvasser knowingly makes a false statement on a petition verification form; [or]

- (5) If the person acting as a sponsor files a petition or a part of a petition with the official charged with verifying the signatures knowing that the petition or part of the petition contains one (1) or more false or fraudulent signatures unless each false or fraudulent signature is clearly stricken by the sponsor before filing.

The Attorney General is by law required to certify the sufficiency of the popular name and ballot title of all initiative or referendum petitions. This certification does not necessarily indicate the approval or disapproval of the contents thereof.
